

Love Jars Care Instructions

* Follow these simple instructions to ensure your jars are served beautifully and tastes delicious!

Thank you for purchasing Love Jars by Legacy Cakery, to defrost your jars please read the following directions:

All jars are baked to order, frosted and frozen, so they arrive to you fresh and in perfect condition.

When your jars arrive, they will be cold. Defrost jars at room temperature for at least 2-4 hours. If you plan to defrost the entire package: open the packaging, wipe any frost from the outside of the container that may have formed during transport.

Once the Love jars are defrosted, they should be enjoyed at room temperature within 1 to 2 days in a cool area. Or, you can keep them in the refrigerator. Cream Cheese Frosting, Fresh Whipped Cream Icing and Cheesecakes must be refrigerated. Love Jars can also be placed in the freezer for later consumption. When ready to eat, remove from freezer or fridge and let the jars sit at room temperature to develop best flavor and texture.

Love Jars last up to 3 weeks in the refrigerator and 3-6 months in the freezer.

If not otherwise specified. please note all our cakes contain dairy, egg and gluten, we are not a nut-free company.

Jars are not microwaveable and should not be used with hot food or liquid.
